PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Greetings,

At our last AACPA meeting I was excited to tell our members that I became an instant millionaire. Actually I had received an official letter from the Las Vegas Actionable Awards Program advising, I had won $3,341,006.00 dollars. All I had to do was send in $20.00 for a release report. The letter also lists others as having picked up their prize.

I was in hog heaven!!

I was going to upgrade all the renovations in my residence and planning to buy summer home in New Mexico!!
YAHOO !!!

Well, not really I knew from the beginning it was a scam. As they say, if it's too good to be true, it is. Keep in mind that legitimate sweepstakes cannot ask for money to pay for fees, taxes, etc., before sending you a prize. THAT IS ILLEGAL and the first sign of a SCAM!! Don't give out bank account or credit card information, either. A call to others on the list showed none had collected money nor authorized the use of their names.

An Internet check shows that this scam has been around for years, according to the Las Vegas Better Business Bureau. A representative for the Nevada attorney's general's office confirmed that it has received complaints about LVAAP. But the office would not confirm or deny if it was being investigated.

Plenty can be found on www.ripoffreport.com. This site has a wealth of information, it was created for consumers to report on possible scams of all kinds. PLEASE, tell all friends and family of this scam and others you care for. We are always looking to improve our lifestyle but this not the way to go about it.

This letter is very misleading and they will send you more than one and to try to lure you in to send the $20.00. We know that many innocent people will fall prey to this cruel scam. But we can help to get the word out. Be sure and stay safe.

The following are resources to assist you:

NEWS RELEASE

March 20, 2006

New Braunfels/ Comal County Crime Stoppers- Hill Country “Fun Run”

The eight annual New Braunfels/ Comal Co. Crime Stoppers Fun Run is scheduled to happen on Saturday, April 29th, 2006 (rain date is May 6th). Formally known as the Poker Run, this renamed popular motorcycle rally is set to leave the rear parking lot of the New Braunfels Police Dept. (1488 S. Seguin St.) at 9:00AM that morning. Riders may begin registering at 8:00AM. Refreshments will be provided. Four- wheelers are welcome too!

This event is currently the nonprofit organization’s only fundraising event to finance its administrative needs. All Crime Stoppers tip rewards paid out are funded by fees assessed persons found guilty of offenses in the court system. These fees are not largely available for running the program. Crime Stoppers is a community-based program designed to assist law enforcement in solving criminal cases. Area news outlets run weekly “Crimes of the Week” releases to spotlight selected cases.

Crime Stoppers will pay a cash reward of up to $1,000.00, for information leading to the arrest and indictment of individuals responsible for the commission of felony offenses. All calls are confidential and the caller will remain anonymous. Crime Stoppers also offers a “Quick One Hundred” program, for tips which lead to the arrest of persons with outstanding felony warrants. The informant is given a code number, and never asked to give their name.

This year’s estimate hopes to see up to 150 cycles at the rally. The 2006 route takes some familiar, and not so familiar roads through the TX Hill Country. The ride concludes at the historic, but now comfortably air conditioned, Sangerhalle Dance Hall, off TX46, just outside New Braunfels. Participants will be treated to a BBQ dinner with all the trimmings. The price is $25 for pre- registered riders, $30 the day of the run, and $5 for passengers. This includes the meal, tour pin, and special door prize drawing.

There will be not poker hands this year, but never- the- less; the Crime Stoppers staff has some great prizes for our riders, donated by area businesses. Without the support of our great community, this event would not be the continuing success that it is. Commemorative items will be available at registration on Saturday, April 29th, 2006. For Fun Run information and prices, call Crime Stoppers coordinators Libby Rinehart, at (830) 608-2185, or Tim Kolbe, at (830) 620-3400. If you want a registration form emailed to you, contact Tim at soatpk@co.comal.tx.us. We hope all who rode last year, will be able to do so again... and bring a friend for a great ride in the hill country!

Submitted by Barbara Lowe, Uvalde PD

1. www.swtjc.net go to What's Happening for a video titled "Prisoner for Life". This is the inmate convicted of Involuntary Manslaughter while driving drunk who spoke at one of the SWTJC Safe & Sober events.

2. The same inmate and another one who has been convicted of Intoxication Manslaughter (drugs) will be speakers at our Shattered Dreams Mock Memorial to be held at Uvalde HS Auditorium on 04-25 at 9:30am. The living dead, mock crash, AirLife transport, arrest, booking, arraignment, parent death notifications, emergency room treatment and other events are planned for Monday, April 24.

All AACPA members are invited to attend as our guests. If schools or other agencies are planning their own event or might want to be observers, please forward this invitation.

Contact me at 830-278-9147 or blo4upd@yahoo.com to make arrangements.

3. Terri Angermiller with the Warden's Office of the Ruben Torres Unit in Hondo is the contact person for offender presentations.

4. Prayers are requested for Jacque Smith and Joe Cardey with National Drug & Safety League. Joe was recently diagnosed with colon and liver cancer. He has started traditional and experimental treatment. The last information I had was that his enzyme level was improving.

Here is the website for the cigarroa shattered dreams video. www.laredoisd.org/departments/itv/videos.asp then scroll down. about 30 minutes long but it will get a person's undivided attention.

Bizarre News (TO SUBSCRIBE: <http://www.gophercentral.com/sub/sub-bizarre.html> )

Today's story comes from Toledo, Ohio where a 14-year-old girl took matters, and a hammer, into her own hands when a strange man tried to abduct her.

According to police, the man forced the girl into his car while she was walking to her school bus stop and said he wanted sex. So, she told him she had dropped her ring in the car and went searching for it. That's when she felt a hammer under the seat.

The girl told police she remembered a lesson from school to always search for a weapon in that kind of situation. Well, she did, and used it to hit him in the groin and make her escape. She was not hurt and ran to her grandmother's house.

The suspect is still being sought. Probably in hospital emergency rooms.

+----- Bizarre Insurance Claims -----+

Coming home I drove into the wrong house and collided with a tree I don't have.

The other car collided with mine without giving warning of its intentions.

I collided with a stationary truck coming the other way.

I pulled away from the side of the road, glanced at my mother-in-law and headed over the embankment.

In my attempt to kill a fly, I drove into a telephone pole.

I was on my way to the doctor with rear end trouble when my universal joint gave way causing me to have an accident.

An invisible car came out of nowhere, struck my car and vanished.

----- Man Has Lawn To Kill For -----

BATAVIA, Ohio - Here's one reason to avoid walking on other people's lawns: you might get killed. A 15-year-old boy was shot and killed by his neighbor after he walked across his yard. The killer, 66-year-old Charles Martin, was described by neighbors as being devoted to his well-kept lawn. A 911 tape recorded Martin as saying, "I just killed a kid." Martin also told a dispatcher, "I've been harassed by him and his parents for five years. Today just blew it up." The victim, Larry Mugrage, was Martin's neighbor. Police report that Martin and Mugrage had previous arguments over the yard. After arguing again Sunday, Martin waited outside when Mugrage returned and shot him twice. He then called 911, said officials.
